PRESS RELEASE

Mount Prospect Police Charge Male Subject with Disorderly Conduct

Thomas E. Gould

On Thursday, February 7, 2019, the Mount Prospect Police Department charged Thomas E. Gould, 28 years old, of 5212 Southwick Drive, Matteson, Illinois, with one count of Disorderly Conduct, a class C misdemeanor. Gould was charged for his involvement in a suspicious incident involving a juvenile, which took place on August 30, 2018 in the 1400 block of South Circle Drive.

In December of 2018, Detectives from the Mount Prospect Police Department became aware of an incident in Palatine through a law enforcement bulletin, with similar details and offender description as the suspicious incident being investigated from August 30 in Mount Prospect. Through collaboration with the Palatine Police Department, Thomas Gould was identified as a suspect in the investigation. On Thursday, February 7, Mount Prospect Detectives interviewed and later charged Thomas Gould with Disorderly Conduct.

The details on the incident are on Thursday, August 30, 2018, at approximately 4:00 PM a 12-year-old was walking her dog in the 1400 block of South Circle Drive when she observed a male standing at the corner of Circle Drive and Frost Drive. As she passed the male, he engaged her in inappropriate conversation of a sexual nature. The male then entered a vehicle and left. Officers searched the area for the male and vehicle, but were unable to locate either.

Gould was able to post bond and his next court date is March 15, 2019 at 10:30 AM in room 101 of the 3rd District Court of Cook County in Rolling Meadows.
