UPDATE

* COMMUNITY ALERT CANCELLATION*
Suspicious Incident/Attempted Child Luring

Unfounded

The Mount Prospect Police Department would like to update the community on the recent alert that went out regarding a suspicious incident/attempted child luring that took place on Wednesday, October 2, 2019. The driver of the black Jeep vehicle immediately came into the police station after learning about the community alert. He volunteered that he was the driver police were seeking. It was learned that the male was a concerned parent who offered assistance to a 10 yr. old girl standing out in the rain who appeared to him to be in need. This matter is no longer being looked into as an attempted child luring incident and the person has been cleared of any criminal act.
