HUMAN SERVICES DEPARTMENT TO OFFER HUMAN TRAFFICKING 101 PRESENTATION

DATE: December 27, 2019
CONTACT: Esther Martinez, Deputy Director, Human Services Department
PHONE: 847-506-4930

January is Human Trafficking Awareness Month. The Mount Prospect Human Services Department has coordinated with the FBI to provide a presentation on Human Trafficking 101. The presentation will be held on Tuesday, January 7th, 2020 from 11am—12pm at the Mount Prospect Village Hall, 50 S. Emerson St, Mount Prospect in the 3rd Floor Board Room.

The presentation will provide a basic understanding of human trafficking and how to identify a trafficking victim. The presenter, FBI Agent Carrie Landau, will also discuss the psychology behind human trafficking, how traffickers gain and maintain their control and trends in recruiting.

Please visit the Village's web site, www.mountprospect.org for more information and to register. Seating will be limited. No photography or video will be allowed. For more information, contact the Human Services Department at 847/870-5680.
