Following last week's meeting between the Prospect High School administration and the Mount Prospect administration and Police Department regarding Prospect's School Resource Officer, both parties have had productive, continued conversations. Officer Schaps will continue to serve as the School Resource Officer at Prospect High School for the upcoming school year. Officer Schaps offered the following statement: "I enjoy my job serving, protecting, and supporting each of the 2,100 students that come through the school doors on a daily basis and will continue to do so in an equitable manner. I am excited to welcome all students back on August 11th when we start our new school year."
