The Village of Mount Prospect's Special Events Commission is looking to honor those individuals whose holiday decorations are a cut above the rest. In the past, the Special Events Commission members scoured the neighborhoods of Mount Prospect looking for those special homes and businesses. This year, the commission is opening up nominations to residents who think either their home or a neighbor's home is worthy of being awarded a prize for one of the most beautifully decorated in Mount Prospect. Residents may go to the form on the Village Website www.mountprospect.org/holidaydecorations to submit a nomination.

The nomination categories are: Best Decorated Business, Best Decorated Block, Simple But Elegant, Griswald Family House Award, Most Festive, Most Spiritual and the Grand Prize Winner. The nomination period will open up on November 22nd and nominations will be taken on a rolling basis. The Special Events Commission will visit nominees between December 6th and the 17th. They will pick the winners for the all the categories except the grand prize at that time.

Six homes will be nominated for the grand prize and residents will get to vote for their favorite on Facebook between December 18th and the 22nd. The house with the most likes will be the winner. "The Special Events Commission is excited to change things up this year and have the Village residents participate in more by nominating homes and selecting the Grand Prize winner," said event coordinator Haley Schechter. "This event encourages everyone to participate in a fun activity in a safe but still festive manner!"

Winners will be announced on December 23rd via social media. Winners will also be honored at a Village Board Meeting on January 4th.
