NEWS RELEASE

Mount Prospect Police Department Arrest Two Juveniles For Vandalism

On Monday, July 1, at approximately 6:22 PM, the Mount Prospect Police Department responded to Busse Park, 111 N. Owen Street, for a report of 2 male juveniles spray painting a racial slur and another derogatory term at the baseball field. Prior to the officer's arrival, the juveniles left the park on bicycles. An officer was able to locate the juveniles a short distance away from the park and discovered cans of spray paint in their possession that matched the damage at the park.

Officers located spray paint on benches and a supply storage container at the baseball field. The two 14-year-old juveniles were referred to the Mount Prospect Police Department Juvenile Diversion program.

The graffiti was promptly removed by the Mt. Prospect Park District.
