Village Manager Michael Cassady announced today that, with the approval of the Village Board, an agreement was reached in principle to accept the decision of Police Chief Timothy Janowick's voluntarily retirement from his employment with the Mount Prospect Police Department (MPPD) effective March 31, 2018. Chief Janowick was sworn in as a police officer with the Mount Prospect Police Department on July 1, 1994. He rose through the ranks of MPPD and was sworn in as Police Chief on June 17, 2014.

According to Janowick, "This decision was made after much personal thought and consultation with my family. I know it is the right decision for me personally and it was a tremendous honor to work alongside the dedicated men and women in the Department to serve the community for all these years."

"I want to thank Chief Janowick for his 23 years of service to the Village and the Police Department", said Cassady. "He is a respected figure in the community who has served the Department with loyalty. He has many accomplishments of which to be proud."

When asked, Cassady emphasized that, "since he was placed on approved administrative leave in late July, Chief Janowick has complied with all requests for medical information and the Department's policy for administrative duty applicable to personnel who are recovering from medical events." Cassady also confirmed that Acting Police Chief Mike Eterno will continue to provide day to day leadership of the Department during the nationwide search for a new Chief of Police.
